POLITICAL PULSE

Which Shows the Current of Feeling Throughout the Country at Fever Heat.

The Various Views and Subjects of the Times Which are Called Forth in a Campaign

To Which May be Attached Another Epidemic, the Cholera Which Refuses to Abate.

Butler Chasing His Boom.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Sept. 2.—General Butler arrived here this morning, accompanied by W. H. Plymton and ex-Senator Ames. He was met at the depot by a procession in carriages. Three or four thousand people were at the hotel awaiting his arrival. An hour or more of his attention was given to an informal reception. General Butler speaks here this afternoon and at Muskegon this evening.

THE VERMONT AFFAIR.

MONTPELIER, Sept. 2.—Notwithstanding the slack canvass and lack of issues, it is believed a pretty full vote will be polled. The vote will be compared with that for governor in 1880, when the republicans polled 47,848, the democrats 21,255, and the greenbackers 1,500 votes. The greenbackers and independents both have tickets. The independent ticket is identical with the republican, except for governor and lieutenant governor. Besides the state ticket and members of the legislature are to be elected. The new legislature will elect a successor to Senator Morrill. The last legislature had 156 republican majority on joint ballot.

FRANKLIN TILDEN.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—The committee appointed to present Tilden the Chicago convention resolutions met this morning to decide the method of officially informing Tilden of the convention's action. It is probable that in compliance with Tilden's wish they will be sent by mail.

WITH UNANIMOUS VOICE.

HARTFORD, Ct., Sept. 2.—The state democratic convention met this forenoon. Edward W. Seymour was made temporary chairman. Governor Fuller was renominated by acclamation. The ticket was completed as follows: Lieutenant governor, George Sumner; secretary, D. Ward Northrop; treasurer, Alfred K. Goodrich.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 2.—The election is passing off quietly in this city. The registration has been the largest ever known. A full vote is being brought out. In the country local contests are bringing out all the voters, and the indications are in favor of a republican majority as large as that of four years ago.

DOWN IN THE BAY STATE.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Sept. 2.—A large vote is being polled here and in adjacent towns.

THE REPUBLICANS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

CONCORD, N. H., Sept. 2.—The republican state convention met this morning. Mr. Greene was made chairman. Hon. Moody Currier was nominated for governor.

George W. Libby and James E. Larkin were chosen presidential electors. Resolutions were adopted cordially endorsing the administration of President Arthur and the national platform of the republican party. They demand a free vote and fair count; in favor of civil service reform and honest money; the absolute protection of American citizens at home and abroad. They eulogized Blaine and Logan and predict their election. Adjourned.

WATERBURY, Vt., Sept. 2.—The indications at Waterbury are that the republican majority will be 20 per cent. less than in 1880. At Danbury a full vote is being cast, with the same indication of a reduced republican majority.

BELLOWS FALLS, Vt., Sept. 2.—This and neighboring towns show that a full vote is being cast. The democrats are peddling a few state tickets with the names of the independent candidates for governor and lieutenant governor. The indications are that there will be more than an average straight republican vote.

THE ARKANSAS ELECTION.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Sept. 2.—The election passed off quietly. Heavy democratic gains were made in this city and county, especially in members of the legislature. The democrats here were in perfect harmony for the first time in ten years. The returns are coming in slowly. The legislators elected here are believed to favor Hon. Poindexter Dunn for United States senator. The constitutional amendment, repudiating the disputed state debt, prevailed here largely.

WILL SEND HIM BACK.

READING, Sept. 2.—The democrats of the eighth district renominated Ermentrout for congress.

A Hebrew Hanging.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 2.—Martin Weinberger was hanged here this morning, at the county jail, for the murder of Louis Gottfreund, a peddler, near So-wickly, on the night of June 16, 1882. The execution was private, not more than fifty persons including members of the press, being present. The condemned man slept well last night and partook of a hearty breakfast. At 11:30 a. m. the procession took up the march to the scaffold. Weinberger moved with a firm step and unflinchingly walked forward and took his position on the trap. There were no religious services and after the noose had been adjusted the trap was sprung and the condemned man was launched into eternity. Death resulted from strangulation and in fifteen minutes' life was pronounced extinct.

Weinberger was a Jew and the first ever hanged in Allegheny county, and believed to be the second in the United States. His friends were untiring in their efforts to obtain a commutation of his sentence, but the pardon board and Governor Pattison refused to interfere.

China's Case.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 2.—Letters from Tin Sin state that Li Hung Chang, the viceroy of Beochi Li, has been degraded from his high position and has been deprived of his title. The present condition of affairs here is most trying. A declared state of war would be more preferable. The merchantmen living here expect to be expelled any hour. The Chinese officials are in a high state of excitement.

Suffering and in Want.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 2.—All cotton factories in this vicinity have stopped work, throwing out of employment a large number of men, women and children, many of whom are suffering for the necessities of life. The city council has been applied to for a special appropriation for their relief.

Fires.

MARLBORO, Mass., Sept. 2.—The shoe factory of Rice & Hutchins, of Boston, burned this morning. They employed over 200 hands. Loss, $60,000.

GREENVILLE, Mass., Sept. 2.—Fire destroyed the city treasurer's office and four other buildings. Loss, $15,000; partially insured.

A Bank Officer a Recreant.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Judge Donahue has appointed Charles J. Osborne, one of the directors, receiver of the Wall street bank. He also ordered a dividend of 65 per cent. paid to depositors.

A Harvest for Thieves.

ELKHART, Ind., Sept. 2.—Thieves infested the town during the presence of a circus show here. Among the houses they entered were J. Replong's and E. Coleman's, carrying off valuables to the amount of $200. At Replong's the thief coolly took a bath, shaved, discarded his old suit and put on Mr. Replong's best.

Another Steamer Burned.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.—A special from Quincy, Ill., says: The steamer A. M. Janet, owned by A. M. Janet, mayor of Quincy, burned to the water's edge this morning. She was built three years ago at a cost of $16,000; insured for $8,000.

Vote for a Change.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Sept. 2.—The woolen knit goods manufacturers are holding a meeting to devise a plan to prevent over production.

Rampant Rebels.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—It is reported that the rebels at Berber are selling the population into slavery. The women are subjected to horrible atrocities.

Dead.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The death of Sir Robert Richard Torrens, K. C. W. G., is announced.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Wallace's savings bank at Newcastle, Pa., has suspended payment.

General Butler has stated on a speaking tour throughout the northwest.

The Williamsport (Pa.) postoffice has been robbed of $3,500 worth of postage stamps.

Four men were badly cut in an Altoona saloon last Saturday night and will die.

The Marshall Car Wheel and Foundry works, at Galveston, Texas, burned. Loss, $120,000.

The society of the Army of West Virginia will hold its eighth annual reunion at Cumberland, Md.

The Little Rock, Arkansas, cotton gin factory was destroyed by fire. Loss, $35,000; insurance, $3,700.

A colored man named George Wilson was mysteriously and fatally shot at Cresson, Pa., Saturday night.

O. O. Stanley, the well known correspondent, claims that the solid south, New Jersey, Indiana and Wisconsin, are certain for Cleveland and Hendricks, with an even chance of carrying New York, Ohio, Michigan, California and Connecticut.

RESTLESS WAR

Which is Waged by the Miners, by the French and by Egyptian Rebels.

Sudden Death of the Venerable Senator Anthony, of Rhode Island—His Life.

Various Views of a Variety of People Which Make the News of the Day.

A Rascally Sport.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 2.—A young man named Redmond, alias "Texas Tom," was arrested at the race track for trying to poison Lady of the Lake, a mare owned by W. Bryant. He admits the charge, and has partially confessed that some book makers were in with him, but refuses to give their names. Redmond said he had been ruled off all tracks but one in St. Louis.

The Coal War.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 2.—A Coal Center special says: Sheriff Chambers arrived here last night and will remain to see that ample protection is given to all who desire to work. The strikers have made no attempt to interrupt any non-unionist on their way to work since Saturday morning. It is thought many will avail themselves of the sheriff's presence to return to the mines. No trouble is anticipated to-day.

PEACE REIGNS AGAIN.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 2.—The situation at the coal mines is the most quiet of any time since the strike began. No damage to person or property resulted from the attack of the night. The governor has ordered the militia companies, which were being held for moving orders, dismissed for the present, with the exception of company K, of Delaware, which will be taken to the vicinity of the mines this morning, to be used at different points on the railroad.

ANOTHER NIGHT ATTACK.

GORR, Ohio, Sept. 2.—Everything is quiet here and no attack is anticipated in the day time. About 100 strikers moved on the Buchtel last night and fired on the guards. The fire was promptly returned and the strikers fled. No casualties have been reported. Three hundred militia reached the valley last night and were placed at Snake Hollow, Sandtown and Long Stretch, the strikers report seven of their number wounded in the attack at Long Stretch on Monday night and two were fatally wounded. Two bridges being threatened they were patrolled all night.

The Cholera.

MADRID, Sept. 2.—Much alarm exists here over the outbreak of cholera in the province of Alacata Novella. There have been sixteen cases and five deaths. A sanitary cordon has been established about the town.

NAPLES, Sept. 2.—A sudden and remarkable increase of cholera cases occurred yesterday. Forty-two cases were reported, one-half of which were fatal. The increase is attributed to excesses on Sunday—fete day. A veritable panic prevails. Disturbances among the populace are frequent and hundreds are fleeing to Rome.

ROME, Sept. 2.—The reports show 150 new cases and forty-five deaths in Italy from cholera in the past twenty-four hours.

Getting There Slowly.

CAIRO, Sept. 2.—The expedition for the relief of Gen. Gordon is progressing slowly, owing to the want of transportation and supplies.

Death of Senator Anthony.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 2.—Senator Henry B. Anthony died here at 1:45 p. m. He had been in his usual health this morning but was attacked with vertigo after breakfast and sank rapidly.

Henry B. Anthony was born at Coventry, R. I., April 1, 1815. He received his education at Brown University; became, in 1838, editor of the Providence Journal; was governor of Rhode Island in 1849 and 1850 and declined a re-election in 1851. He was elected United States senator in 1859; was re-elected in 1864 and again in 1870. He was president pro tempore of the senate for some in 1869 and 1871.

Resumed Work—A Plucky Policeman.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 2.—The window glass factories and many of the bottle houses have resumed operations after two months of idleness, the usual summer shut down. The resumption gives employment to many thousands of men.

Police Officer Little arrested two Italians named Dearly and Finchy this morning for fighting on the street and was taking them to the station when he was attacked with a knife by a friend of the prisoners and stabbed in the back several times. The plucky officer held on to Dearly and Finchy and finally succeeded in placing them behind the station house bars, when he fainted from the loss of blood. An examination of the wounds showed a number of ugly gashes in the back and one deep cut across the neck. His condition is serious and recovery is doubtful. His assailant has not yet been captured.

LOCAL NEWS.

Hattersley & Sons have sued L. B. Johns for $75. There is a controversy about the bill.

Judge L. M. Ninde is home from Potoskey and will convene the superior court next Monday.

William Schiefer, of the Wabash copper shop, and an uncle of Sheriff Schiefer, comes out for Cleveland and Hendricks. Mr. Schiefer has always been a republican.

This afternoon Mrs. Mary Hughes was granted a divorce from her husband, James Hughes, a helper in the Kerr Murray foundry. She was also given alimony by Judge O'Rourke.

Frank Burgess, for twenty-one years a machinist in the Pittsburg shop, but now employed by the Wabash company, has repudiated Blaine and Logan and will vote for Cleveland and Hendricks.

John M. Goar, editor of the New Castle Democrat, is in the city the guest of his friend, Hon. Robert C. Ball. Mr. Goar says the state will give a bigger democratic majority in November than ever in its history.

Harry Polhamus, clerk to road foreman of engines on the Pittsburg, treated his friends to good Havana the other day in honor of his twenty-first birthday. The boys expect to soon smoke on his wedding day.

Louis Centlivre will shortly invite the members of the city press to his brewery out on Spy Run avenue. Mr. Centlivre has the prettiest beer room in the state and wants the scribbles to sample his Bohemian lager.

It is said three young men will be arrested for burning the stable of Enoch Mericle in Eel River township. Mr. Mericle is not insane but feels pretty sore over the loss of three barns and his horse in the past four years.

The indications for the lower lake region as reported to THE SENTINEL by the weather bureau at Washington are as follows: Partly cloudy weather, and light local rains, slightly warmer weather, south winds and lower barometer.

Colonel Sam B. Sweet will not vote for Eugene Bundy, the republican candidate for lieutenant governor. He will put his ballot in for General Manson. Colonel Sweet is not magnetized by Mr. Blaine and may vote for General Butler.

A jury has been impaneled in the circuit court to try the case of the Ellison heirs against the Grand Rapids road for $10,000, because of the collision some months ago at the Nickel Plate crossing. Quite an array of talented attorneys appear in the case.

There will be a big hickory pole raised on Wilt street in the Fifth ward tomorrow evening. Mr. Anselm Fuelber, city editor of the Staats Zeitung, will make a speech. Mr. Fuelber is one of the brightest journalists in the west and can make a brilliant address.

Engine No. 108 was run out of the Pittsburg shop yesterday after receiving general repairs, also a new extended smoke box and straight stack. No. 108 will be used in the passenger service and assigned to the Crestline accommodation. Engineer Andy Koons is already betting on her being able to run a mile inside of sixty seconds.

The following jurors have been selected for the September term of the superior court: James Young, Lafayette township; Frank Roberts, Springfield; Levi Gump, Scipio; Fred Snyder, Lake; Wm. Dalman, Pleasant; George Rapp, Wayne; Henry Hilbrecht, city; Fred Kammeier, Washington; Volney Parks, city; Byron S. Rich, Eel River; Jacob Vandesau, St. Joseph; Peter Conrad, Jefferson.

Eugene Bundy, the republican candidate for lieutenant governor, gave the city of Fort Wayne a nice dose of taffy in his speech last night. Mr. Bundy was foremost in the job to beat Fort Wayne out of one of the new insane asylums and has the supreme gall to come here and ask the people of Fort Wayne to vote for him. November 4 is the day to pay Mr. Bundy back in his own coin.

He was not a friend of Fort Wayne, a year ago and cannot expect friendship here now.
